SPOTLIGHT ON...

HUNGER AND HOMELESSNESS

The Gospel story of Jesus feeding the 5,000 begins in an odd way: his disciples are worried about the crowd's ability to get dinner, but Jesus says to them, "You give them something to eat." They must have thought he'd been out in the sun for too long because they only had 5 loaves and 2 fishes. Some believe that the miracle Jesus then performed was making food materialize out of thin air. But it's also possible that the miracle was that his disciples encouraged those in the crowd to share what they had with each other. Now, that would be a miracle!

When we see the hunger and homelessness faced by the "least" of his brothers and sisters today, we hear Jesus still telling his disciples (us), "You give them something to eat."

This year, one of our campus goals is to provide a Thanksgiving food basket to over 500 local families. Residence hall floors, student clubs, campus departments and individuals are pitching in a lot (and some are growing moustaches) to make this miracle happen.

Another goal is to move beyond charity to justice by education about poverty so that we can create a society in which people no longer need handouts. The "Poverty Simulation," "Raise the Roof," "Hunger Banquet," "Table of Plenty" and "Homelessness Plunge" during Hunger and Homelessness Awareness Week (Nov. 14-19) are excellent ways to explore just solutions.

Marianist Martyrs

The 12:05 Mass on Friday, November 5 will celebrate the eight members of the Society of Mary who have been beatified (declared "Blessed") and recognized by the Church as martyrs for the faith. Seven of these men died as part of the Spanish Civil War in the 1930's; one was executed by the Nazi's during World War II. All are welcome

A local charity which serves the poor in the Dayton area will receive 10% of every Sunday collection. The rest of the collection supports more than 100 Campus Ministry programs of all kinds, including our
